

Contents (Listed by paragraph and page number)

Chapter 1

Introduction, page 1

Section I

Fulfilling The Intent Of The Congress, page 1

Changing how we manage change • 1-1, page 1

Managing The Army • 1-2, page 1

Section II

Army Transformation, page 2

Background • 1-3, page 2

The Army Vision • 1-4, page 2

Managing transformation • 1-5, page 2

Army transformation and the force development process • 1-6, page 4

Section III

Purpose, Scope, And Objectives Of This Text, page 5

Purpose • 1-7, page 5

Scope and objectives • 1-8, page 5

Section IV

Text Organization And Relevance, page 5

Three part text • 1-9, page 5

The Army as a system • 1-10, page 5

Army systems and subsystems • 1-11, page 6

Management and management support systems • 1-12, page 6

Relevance • 1-13, page 6

Chapter 2

The Army Organizational Life Cycle, page 7

Section I

Introduction, page 7

Chapter content • 2-1, page 7

The Army Organizational Life Cycle Model (AOLCM) • 2-2, page 7

Section II

Force management, page 9

The Army War College Model • 2-3, page 9

Force management terms. • 2-4, page 10

Section III

Coordination of force integration actions, page 11

Information exchange as a key element of force integration • 2-5, page 11

The team approach to force integration • 2-6, page 11

Section IV

Changing how we manage change, page 13

Alterations to force management • 2-7, page 13

The future of force integration • 2-8, page 14

Section V

Summary and references, page 15

Summary • 2-9, page 15

References • 2-10, page 15

Chapter 3

Army Organizational Structure, page 17

How the Army Runs

Section I

Introduction, page 17

Chapter content • 3–1, page 17

The Army organizational system • 3–2, page 17

Section II

The production subsystem, page 18

Statutory requirements • 3–3, page 18

Production of needed resources • 3–4, page 18

Section III

The combat subsystem, page 20

Products of the combat subsystem • 3–5, page 20

The Army in the field • 3–6, page 20

Section IV

The integrating subsystem, page 21

Tasks of the integrating subsystem • 3–7, page 21

Differentiation and integration • 3–8, page 21

Section V

Summary and references, page 23

Summary • 3–9, page 23

References • 3–10, page 23

Chapter 4

The Relationship of Joint And Army Force Planning, page 25

Section I

Introduction, page 25

Chapter content • 4–1, page 25

The joint strategic planning system (JSPS) • 4–2, page 25

Joint requirements oversight council (JROC) and capabilities assessments (see para 4–12) • 4–3, page 26

Army participation in joint planning and resourcing processes • 4–4, page 26

JOPES • 4–5, page 26

Section II

Joint strategic planning system (JSPS), page 26

JSPS overview • 4–6, page 26

Strategic direction • 4–7, page 26

Joint strategic capabilities plan (JSCP) • 4–8, page 27

Planning and programming advice • 4–9, page 27

Strategic assessments • 4–10, page 28

The Joint Requirements Oversight Council (JROC) • 4–11, page 29

Capabilities Assessments • 4–12, page 30

Section III

Planning and resourcing, page 31

DOD planning, programming, budgeting system, and execution process (PPBE) • 4–13, page 31

The Army planning system • 4–14, page 32

Section IV

The Joint Operations Planning and Execution System (JOPES), page 32

JOPES • 4–15, page 32

Combatant Commands (COCOM) • 4–16, page 33

Relationship of the chairman of the JCS (CJCS) to combatant commanders • 4–17, page 35

Section V

Summary and references, page 35

Summary • 4–18, page 35

References • 4–19, page 36

Chapter 5 Army Force Development, page 37

Section I

Introduction, page 37

Force development • 5-1, page 37

Force development process • 5-2, page 37

Section II

Phase I—Develop capability requirements, page 38

Capabilities integration and development • 5-3, page 38

Joint concept development • 5-4, page 38

Capabilities based requirements generation • 5-5, page 40

Section III

Phase II—Design organizations, page 43

Organization design • 5-6, page 43

The organization design process • 5-7, page 43

Section IV

Phase III—Develop organizational models, page 44

TOE and BOIP developers • 5-8, page 44

TOE description • 5-9, page 45

Incremental TOE system • 5-10, page 45

TOE review and approval • 5-11, page 46

Consolidated TOE update • 5-12, page 46

Basis-of-issue plan (BOIP) • 5-13, page 46

Section V

Phase IV—Determine organizational authorizations, page 47

Determining organizational authorizations • 5-14, page 47

Total army analysis (TAA) • 5-15, page 48

The TAA process • 5-16, page 48

TAA Phase I—Requirements determination • 5-17, page 50

TAA Phase II—Resource determination • 5-18, page 52

Army structure (ARSTRUC) message • 5-19, page 53

The product of TAA • 5-20, page 53

Section VI

Phase V—Document organizational authorizations, page 54

Documentation components • 5-21, page 54

Structure and manpower allocation system (SAMAS) • 5-22, page 54

The Army authorization documents system (TAADS) • 5-23, page 55

The force documentation process. • 5-24, page 56

Structure and composition system (SACS) • 5-25, page 57

Force management system (FMS). • 5-26, page 58

Section VII

Summary and references, page 59

Summary • 5-27, page 59

References • 5-28, page 59

Chapter 6 Planning For Mobilization And Deployment, page 61

Section I

Introduction, page 61

Chapter content • 6-1, page 61

Chapter organization • 6-2, page 61

Section II

Planning system description, deliberate planning, and crisis action planning, page 61

The planning system • 6-3, page 61

Deliberate planning • 6-4, page 67

How the Army Runs

Crisis action (time sensitive) planning (CAP) • 6–5, page 70
Relationship to deliberate planning • 6–6, page 71
Crisis action planning phases • 6–7, page 71

Section III

Single-crisis and multiple-crisis procedures, page 73
Initiation of single-crisis procedures • 6–8, page 73
Initiation of multiple-crises procedures • 6–9, page 77

Section IV

Army mobilization, page 78
Framework for mobilization planning • 6–10, page 78
AMOPES overview • 6–11, page 79
Mobilization planning responsibilities • 6–12, page 79
WARTRACE program description • 6–13, page 81

Section V

Industrial preparedness, page 88
The need for industrial preparedness • 6–14, page 88
DOD industrial base preparedness objectives • 6–15, page 88
DOD-level industrial preparedness management • 6–16, page 89
The defense priorities and allocations system (DPAS) • 6–17, page 89
The national defense stockpile • 6–18, page 89
DOD key facilities list (KFL) • 6–19, page 90
Army industrial preparedness program • 6–20, page 90

Section VI

Summary and references, page 90
Summary • 6–21, page 90
References • 6–22, page 90

Chapter 7

Reserve Components, page 93

Section I

Introduction, page 93
Chapter content • 7–1, page 93
Reserve components • 7–2, page 93

Section II

The Army National Guard, page 93
An American tradition • 7–3, page 93
National Defense Act of 1916 • 7–4, page 93
World War I • 7–5, page 93
World War II • 7–6, page 94
Korean War • 7–7, page 94
Vietnam War • 7–8, page 94
Desert Shield/Desert Storm • 7–9, page 94
Post 9/11 • 7–10, page 94
Current force • 7–11, page 94

Section III

The Army Reserve, page 95
Federal control • 7–12, page 95
The formative years • 7–13, page 95
World War I • 7–14, page 95
Korean War • 7–15, page 96
Changing role • 7–16, page 96
Operations Just Cause to the Global War on Terrorism • 7–17, page 96
Current force • 7–18, page 96

Section IV

Title 10 U.S. Code, page 96
United States Code (USC) • 7–19, page 96

Title 10 and Title 32 • 7–20, page 96

Section V

Reserve service, page 97

The categories • 7–21, page 97

The ready reserve • 7–22, page 97

Standby reserve (Army Reserve only) • 7–23, page 98

Retired reserve (Army Reserve only) • 7–24, page 99

Section VI

Reserve component management, page 99

Structure • 7–25, page 99

Congress • 7–26, page 99

Office of the Secretary of Defense (OSD) • 7–27, page 99

Office of the Chairman, Joint Chiefs of Staff (CJCS) • 7–28, page 100

Headquarters, DA • 7–29, page 100

The National Guard Bureau (NGB) • 7–30, page 101

Office of the Chief, Army Reserve (OCAR) • 7–31, page 103

Major Army Commands • 7–32, page 104

State Adjutants General (Army National Guard) • 7–33, page 105

Section VII

Training, page 106

Goals • 7–34, page 106

Challenges • 7–35, page 106

Unit training assemblies • 7–36, page 106

Collective tasks • 7–37, page 106

Section VIII

Equipment, page 107

Policy • 7–38, page 107

National Guard and Reserve equipment appropriation (NGREA) • 7–39, page 107

Withdrawal • 7–40, page 107

Section IX

Readiness/mobilization assistance, page 108

Background • 7–41, page 108

AC/RC affiliations programs • 7–42, page 108

Section X

Wartrace, page 108

Wartime organization • 7–43, page 108

Association • 7–44, page 108

Management • 7–45, page 108

Defense planning guidance (DPG) • 7–46, page 109

Force support packages (FSP) • 7–47, page 109

Army Reserve elements (ARE) of Joint and Defense activities • 7–48, page 109

Overseas Deployment Training (ODT) • 7–49, page 110

Full time support (FTS) • 7–50, page 110

The Total Army School System (TASS) • 7–51, page 111

Section XI

Reserve Component Pay, Benefits, And Entitlements, page 111

Individual status • 7–52, page 111

Benefits • 7–53, page 111

Retirement • 7–54, page 111

Uniform Code of Military Justice (UCMJ) • 7–55, page 112

Section XII

Reserve Component Transformation Campaign Plan, page 112

Army Reserve transformation • 7–56, page 112

Army Reserve Expeditionary Force • 7–57, page 112

Multiple Component Units (MCU) • 7–58, page 112

How the Army Runs

Section III

Summary and References, page 113

Summary • 7–59, page 113

References • 7–60, page 113

Chapter 8

Force Readiness, page 115

Section I

Introduction, page 115

Maintaining readiness • 8–1, page 115

Chapter content • 8–2, page 116

Section II

Managing Army readiness, page 116

Definitions of readiness • 8–3, page 116

Factors affecting force readiness • 8–4, page 116

Cost of force readiness. • 8–5, page 116

Section III

Department of defense readiness reporting system (DRRS), page 117

DRRS overview • 8–6, page 117

Chairman's Readiness System (CRS). • 8–7, page 117

The JQRR Process (Figure 8–4) • 8–8, page 118

JQRR Metrics • 8–9, page 120

JQRR Outputs • 8–10, page 122

Senior Readiness Oversight Council (SROC) • 8–11, page 123

Quarterly Readiness Report to Congress (QRRR). • 8–12, page 123

Assessing future readiness • 8–13, page 123

Global Status of Resources and Training System (GSORTS) • 8–14, page 123

Section IV

Army unit status reporting, page 123

Unit status report purpose • 8–15, page 123

USR relationship to joint readiness • 8–16, page 123

USR procedures • 8–17, page 123

Use of USR data at HQDA • 8–18, page 126

Section V

Strategic Readiness System (SRS), page 126

Background. • 8–19, page 126

System description. • 8–20, page 126

System architecture. • 8–21, page 126

Army Strategy Map. • 8–22, page 127

Subordinate scorecards. • 8–23, page 128

SRS automation. • 8–24, page 128

Section VI

Summary and references, page 128

Summary • 8–25, page 128

References • 8–26, page 128

Chapter 9

ARMY PLANNING, PROGRAMMING, BUDGETING, AND EXECUTION PROCESS, page 131

Section I

Introduction, page 131

Chapter content • 9–1, page 131

PPBS-a dynamic system • 9–2, page 131

Section II

System Responsibilities, page 132

Secretarial oversight • 9–3, page 132

System management • 9–4, page 133

Planning phase • 9–5, page 133
 Integrated programming-budgeting phase • 9–6, page 140
 Execution phase • 9–7, page 141

Section III

Responsibilities for PPBE-Related Operational Tasks, page 142
 HQDA principal officials • 9–8, page 142
 Army commanders • 9–9, page 145
 Staff managers and sponsors for congressional appropriations • 9–10, page 145

Section IV

DOD PPBE Process Description, page 146
 Purpose • 9–11, page 146
 The Future Years Defense Program (FYDP) • 9–12, page 146
 Key participants • 9–13, page 148
 Department of Defense Decision Bodies • 9–14, page 148
 Intelligence Program Review Group • 9–15, page 149
 Defense Acquisition Board and Joint Requirements Oversight Council • 9–16, page 149

Section V

Army PPBE, page 150
 Army's primary resource management system • 9–17, page 150
 PPBE concept • 9–18, page 150
 PPBE objectives • 9–19, page 150
 Control of planning, programming, and budgeting documents • 9–20, page 151

Section VI

Recording Resources, page 151
 The MDEP: what it is and how it's used • 9–21, page 151
 Program and budget years covered by the MDEP • 9–22, page 152
 Extent that manpower and dollars can be redistributed in the MDEP • 9–23, page 153
 How flexibility affects the MDEP • 9–24, page 153
 Resource recording structures • 9–25, page 154
 Automated support • 9–26, page 154

Section VII

Army PPBE Deliberative Forums, page 154
 Army Resources Board • 9–27, page 154
 Senior Review Group • 9–28, page 155
 Planning Program Budget Committee • 9–29, page 155
 PPBC Council of Colonels • 9–30, page 155
 Program Evaluation Groups • 9–31, page 156
 A principal PPBE-related committee • 9–32, page 158

Section VIII

Process and Structure, page 158
 System process • 9–33, page 158
 System structure • 9–34, page 158

Section IX

DoD PPBE Planning Phase, page 161
 NSC guidance • 9–35, page 161
 Planning by OSD and the Joint Staff • 9–36, page 161
 Joint Strategic Planning System • 9–37, page 161
 OSD Enhanced Planning Process (EPP) • 9–38, page 161

Section X

PPBE Planning, page 162
 Army Vision and Army Transformation Roadmap • 9–39, page 162
 The Army Plan • 9–40, page 162
 Army Strategic Planning Guidance • 9–41, page 163
 Army Planning Priorities Guidance • 9–42, page 163
 Army Program Guidance Memorandum • 9–43, page 163
 Army International Activities Plan • 9–44, page 163

How the Army Runs

Requirements determination • 9–45, page 164
Army Modernization Plan • 9–46, page 164
Army Research, Development, and Acquisition Plan • 9–47, page 164
Force Development and Total Army Analysis • 9–48, page 165

Section XI

Operational Planning Link to the DoD PPBE, page 165
Operational planning • 9–49, page 165
Missions and tasks • 9–50, page 165

Section XII

Integrated Programming-Budgeting Phase, page 165
Army programming and budgeting • 9–51, page 165
Guidance • 9–52, page 165
Resource framework • 9–53, page 166
POM preparation • 9–54, page 167
Program and budget correlation • 9–55, page 170
BES preparation • 9–56, page 171
OSD program and budget review • 9–57, page 171
President's Budget • 9–58, page 172
Justification • 9–59, page 172
POM/BES updates • 9–60, page 173

Section XIII

Budget Execution Phase, page 173
Management and accounting • 9–61, page 173
Financial management • 9–62, page 173
Revised approved program for RDT&E • 9–63, page 175
Program Budget Accounting System • 9–64, page 175
Obligation and outlay plans • 9–65, page 175
Financing unbudgeted requirements • 9–66, page 176
Oversight of nonappropriated funds • 9–67, page 176

Section IVX

Program Performance and Review, page 176
Program implementation • 9–68, page 176
Performance Assessment • 9–69, page 176
Review of selected acquisition systems • 9–70, page 176
Joint Reconciliation Program • 9–71, page 176

Section XV

SUMMARY AND References, page 177
PPBE concept • 9–72, page 177
System products and process • 9–73, page 177
References • 9–74, page 177

Chapter 10

Resource Management, page 179

Section I

Introduction, page 179
The need for resource management • 10–1, page 179
Resource management—a definition • 10–2, page 180
Resource management terms • 10–3, page 180
Key players in Army resource management • 10–4, page 180
A framework to help study resource management • 10–5, page 182

Section II

Acquire Resources, page 183
Getting the fiscal resources for the Army to use • 10–6, page 183
Treasury warrants • 10–7, page 184

Section III

Allocate Resources To The Field, page 184

Fund distribution and control • 10–8, page 184
 Fund Authorization Document (FAD) • 10–9, page 185
 Fund allowance system • 10–10, page 185
 Delegation of funding authority • 10–11, page 185
 Special classified programs • 10–12, page 185
 Secretary of the Army Representation Funds • 10–13, page 185

Section IV

Account For The Use Of The Resources, page 186
 Legally using the resources to accomplish the mission • 10–14, page 186
 Availability of appropriations for obligations • 10–15, page 186
 Properly obligating the resources • 10–16, page 187
 The Anti-deficiency Act (ADA) • 10–17, page 187
 Accounting for the obligation • 10–18, page 188
 The Army management structure (AMS) • 10–19, page 188
 Year end certification of accounts • 10–20, page 189

Section V

Analyze The Use Of Resources, page 189
 1981 - A change in responsibilities • 10–21, page 189
 Execution reviews • 10–22, page 189
 HQDA Cost and Performance Measures Reviews • 10–23, page 190
 Shifting resources • 10–24, page 190
 Analyzing the “accounting books”—Joint Reconciliation Program • 10–25, page 190

Section VI

Improving Management And Business Practices In The Army, page 191
 Efforts to improve Army management • 10–26, page 191
 Federal Manager’s Financial Integrity Act (FMFIA) of 1982 • 10–27, page 191
 Chief Financial Officers (CFO) Act of 1990 • 10–28, page 191
 Government Management Reform Act (GMRA) of 1994 • 10–29, page 191
 Government Performance and Results Act (GPRA) of 1993 • 10–30, page 191
 Federal Financial Management Improvement Act (FFMIA) of 1996 • 10–31, page 192
 Management controls • 10–32, page 192
 Improving business practices • 10–33, page 192
 Cost management (CM) • 10–34, page 193
 Cost modeling • 10–35, page 194
 Planning • 10–36, page 194
 Building an ABC model • 10–37, page 194
 Using the ABC model • 10–38, page 195
 Cost commitment and review • 10–39, page 195
 Links to principles • 10–40, page 196
 Summary • 10–41, page 196

Section VII

Non-Appropriated Funds, page 197
 Non-appropriated funds definitions • 10–42, page 197
 NAFI management • 10–43, page 197
 Fiduciary responsibility for NAF (10 United States Code 2783) • 10–44, page 197
 Management of MWR and NAF • 10–45, page 197
 HQDA oversight of non-appropriated funds • 10–46, page 197

Section VIII

Summary And References, page 198
 Summary • 10–47, page 198
 References • 10–48, page 198

Chapter 11

Materiel System Research, Development, And Acquisition Management, page 199

Section I

Introduction, page 199
 Department of Defense (DOD) and U.S. Army Management System • 11–1, page 199

How the Army Runs

System focus • 11-2, page 199

Section II

DOD organization and management, page 199

DOD policy • 11-3, page 199

DOD acquisition management • 11-4, page 200

Organizational linkage • 11-5, page 200

DOD Science and Technology (S&T) • 11-6, page 201

Defense Science and Technology Strategy • 11-7, page 201

Defense Advanced Research Projects Agency (DARPA) • 11-8, page 202

Defense Acquisition University (DAU) • 11-9, page 202

Defense Systems Management College (DSMC) • 11-10, page 202

Section III

Army organization and management, page 202

Army's RDA Goals • 11-11, page 202

Army Acquisition Executive (AAE) • 11-12, page 203

The program executive officer (PEO) • 11-13, page 206

The Program/Project/Product Manager (PM) • 11-14, page 207

PEO Resource Control • 11-15, page 208

Acquisition Career Management • 11-16, page 208

Headquarters, Department of the Army (HQDA) • 11-17, page 208

Major Army Commands (MACOMs) • 11-18, page 212

Other DA agencies • 11-19, page 214

Section IV

Materiel requirements generation process, page 215

Policy • 11-20, page 215

Joint Capabilities Integration and Development System (JCIDS) • 11-21, page 216

Concept development and experimentation (CD&E) • 11-22, page 216

Army science and technology • 11-23, page 217

Technology transition strategy • 11-24, page 219

Section V

Materiel capabilities documents (MCD), page 221

Generating and documenting capabilities-based materiel requirements • 11-25, page 221

Capstone requirements documents (CRDs) • 11-26, page 223

Section VI

Materiel requirements approval process, page 223

Joint requirements approval • 11-27, page 223

Army requirements approval • 11-28, page 224

Army requirements oversight council (AROC) • 11-29, page 225

Army approval process procedures • 11-30, page 225

Section VII

Materiel systems acquisition management process, page 226

Materiel systems acquisition management • 11-31, page 226

Acquisition categories • 11-32, page 228

Acquisition strategies and program plans • 11-33, page 228

Environmental considerations • 11-34, page 229

Risk assessments and management • 11-35, page 229

Section VIII

Acquisition activities, phases and milestones, page 229

Pre-systems acquisition activity • 11-36, page 229

Concept refinement phase • 11-37, page 229

Milestone A • 11-38, page 230

Technology development phase • 11-39, page 230

Systems acquisition activity • 11-40, page 230

Milestone B • 11-41, page 230

System development and demonstration (SDD) phase • 11-42, page 231

Entrance criteria • 11-43, page 231

System integration work effort • 11-44, page 231

Design readiness review (DRR) • 11–45, page 231
 System demonstration work effort • 11–46, page 232
 Production and deployment phase • 11–47, page 232
 Entrance criteria • 11–48, page 232
 Milestone C • 11–49, page 232
 Low-rate initial production (LRIP) work effort • 11–50, page 232
 Full-rate production (FRP) decision review • 11–51, page 233
 Full-rate production and deployment work effort • 11–52, page 233
 Sustainment activity/operations and support phase • 11–53, page 233
 Sustainment work effort • 11–54, page 233
 Disposal work effort • 11–55, page 234
 Total package fielding (TPF) process • 11–56, page 234
 Army system of systems (SoS)/unit set fielding (USF) • 11–57, page 235
 Software blocking (SWB) • 11–58, page 236
 Simulation and modeling for acquisition, requirements, and training (SMART) • 11–59, page 237
 Additional considerations • 11–60, page 238

Section IX

Acquisition documentation, page 238
 Materiel requirements documents (MRDs) • 11–61, page 238
 Other service requirements • 11–62, page 238
 Catalog of approved requirements documents (CARDS) • 11–63, page 238
 Program review documentation and program plans • 11–64, page 239
 Typical waivers and reports • 11–65, page 241
 Other documentation. • 11–66, page 242

Section X

Acquisition oversight and review (O&R) process, page 242
 Integrated product teams (IPTs) • 11–67, page 242
 The Defense Acquisition Board (DAB) • 11–68, page 243
 DOD Information Technology Acquisition Board (ITAB) • 11–69, page 243
 The Army Systems Acquisitions Review Council (ASARC) • 11–70, page 243
 In-process review (IPR) • 11–71, page 244
 Other program reviews. • 11–72, page 244

Section XI

Testing and evaluation, page 244
 T&E strategy • 11–73, page 244
 Developmental testing (DT) and operational testing (OT) • 11–74, page 245

Section XII

Integrated logistics support (ILS), page 245
 ILS requirements and procedures • 11–75, page 245
 ILS process • 11–76, page 246

Section XIII

Manpower and personnel integration (MANPRINT) program, page 246
 Seven MANPRINT domains • 11–77, page 246
 MANPRINT objectives and concept • 11–78, page 247

Section XIV

Acquisition resources management, page 248
 Appropriations • 11–79, page 248
 Program and budget process • 11–80, page 248
 RDTE appropriation activities • 11–81, page 249
 Procurement appropriations • 11–82, page 250
 Research, development, and acquisition plan (RDA plan) • 11–83, page 250
 TRADOC capabilities needs analysis (CNA) • 11–84, page 250
 Program stability. • 11–85, page 251

Section XV

Summary and references, page 251
 Summary. • 11–86, page 251

How the Army Runs

References. • 11–87, page 251

Chapter 12

Logistics, page 253

Section I

Introduction, page 253

Chapter content • 12–1, page 253

Key definitions and concepts (from factory to foxhole) • 12–2, page 253

Section II

National Logistics Organization: ASA (ALT); the Army G–4; and, Army Materiel Command, page 257

Assistant Secretary of the Army for Acquisition, Logistics, and Technology (ASA (ALT)). • 12–3, page 257

Deputy for Integrated Logistics Support (ILS), ASA (ALT)/Army G–4. • 12–4, page 258

Mission and Organization of AMC “Essential in peace, indispensable in war” • 12–5, page 264

AMC Changing • 12–6, page 269

Functions of AMC • 12–7, page 270

Section III

National logistics organization: other, page 276

Other Logistics-related organizations • 12–8, page 276

Defense Logistics-related organizations • 12–9, page 277

Section IV

Standard systems, page 278

Defense standard systems • 12–10, page 278

Department of the Army standard systems • 12–11, page 279

Section V

Funding, page 283

Appropriations • 12–12, page 283

Army Working Capitol Fund (AWCF) • 12–13, page 283

Section VI

Security Assistance, page 284

Security Assistance Responsibilities (SA) • 12–14, page 284

Co-production • 12–15, page 285

Section VII

Summary, references, websites, & professional reading list, page 285

Summary • 12–16, page 285

Selected official military references • 12–17, page 285

Chapter 13

Military Human Resource Management, page 287

Section I

Introduction, page 287

Military human resource management (MHRM) • 13–1, page 287

Personnel transformation (PT) • 13–2, page 287

Military HR life cycle functions • 13–3, page 288

Human resources (HR) leadership • 13–4, page 288

Key military human resource (HR) publications • 13–5, page 288

Military occupational classification and structure system (MOCS) • 13–6, page 289

Key terms and interrelated documents and systems at the heart of the human resources (HR) process • 13–7, page 289

Section II

The structure function, page 290

Military manpower management • 13–8, page 290

Manpower management at HQDA • 13–9, page 291

Personnel management authorization document (PMAD) • 13–10, page 292

Notional force (NOF) system • 13–11, page 292

Military force alignment • 13–12, page 292

Section III

The acquisition function, page 293

Enlisted procurement • 13–13, page 293

Warrant officer (WO) procurement • 13–14, page 294

Commissioned officer procurement • 13–15, page 294

Section IV

The compensation function, page 295

Compensation overview • 13–16, page 295

Manning Program Evaluation Group (PEG) • 13–17, page 296

Section V

The distribution function, page 296

Enlisted distribution and assignment • 13–18, page 296

Officer distribution and assignment • 13–19, page 300

Section VI

The development function, page 302

Enlisted development • 13–20, page 302

Enlisted personnel management system (EPMS) • 13–21, page 302

Enlisted evaluation system (EES) • 13–22, page 302

The NCO leader self-development career model • 13–23, page 302

Enlisted promotions • 13–24, page 303

Command sergeants major program • 13–25, page 303

Total army retention program • 13–26, page 303

Qualitative management program (QMP) • 13–27, page 304

Warrant officer management act (WOMA) • 13–28, page 304

Warrant officer education system (WOES) • 13–29, page 305

Warrant officer promotions • 13–30, page 305

Warrant officer retention programs • 13–31, page 306

Officer development • 13–32, page 306

Officer personnel management system III (OPMS III) • 13–33, page 306

Fundamentals of officer management • 13–34, page 307

Career fields • 13–35, page 308

Career field assignment • 13–36, page 308

OPMS as a part of human resources management (HRM) • 13–37, page 309

Centralized selection for command positions • 13–38, page 309

Army acquisition corps (AAC) • 13–39, page 309

Officer evaluation system • 13–40, page 310

Officer evaluation reporting system • 13–41, page 310

Officer promotions • 13–42, page 311

Officer quality management • 13–43, page 311

Officer strength management • 13–44, page 311

Defense Officer Personnel Management Act (DOPMA) • 13–45, page 312

DOD Reorganization Act of 1986 (“Goldwater-Nichols”) • 13–46, page 312

Section VII

The sustainment function, page 312

Sustainment function overview • 13–47, page 312

Army continuing education system (ACES) • 13–48, page 313

Equal opportunity program • 13–49, page 313

The army casualty system • 13–50, page 313

Section VIII

The transition function, page 314

Transition function overview • 13–51, page 314

The army career and alumni program (ACAP) • 13–52, page 314

Army retirement services program • 13–53, page 314

Separation • 13–54, page 314

Enlisted separation • 13–55, page 314

Enlisted nondisability retirement system • 13–56, page 315

Officer nondisability retirement system • 13–57, page 315

How the Army Runs

Physical disability separation • 13–58, page 315

Section IX

Summary and references, page 315

Summary • 13–59, page 315

References • 13–60, page 316

Chapter 14

Civilian Personnel Management, page 317

Section I

Introduction, page 317

Chapter content • 14–1, page 317

Categories of civilian personnel • 14–2, page 317

Army workforce mix • 14–3, page 318

Decentralized management • 14–4, page 318

Section II

Organization for civilian personnel management, page 319

U.S. office of personnel management (OPM) • 14–5, page 319

Other agencies with federal government-wide authority • 14–6, page 320

Department of Defense (DOD) • 14–7, page 320

Department of the Army (DA) • 14–8, page 320

Section III

Civilian personnel regionalization and modernization, page 321

Regionalization structure • 14–9, page 321

Modernization • 14–10, page 321

Section IV

Personnel management at installation/activity level, page 322

Personnel management responsibility and authority. • 14–11, page 322

Commander responsibilities • 14–12, page 322

Supervisor responsibilities • 14–13, page 323

Maintain accurate position descriptions • 14–14, page 323

Recruit, select, and assign employees • 14–15, page 324

Evaluate employee performance and administer awards/incentives programs • 14–16, page 324

Train and develop employees • 14–17, page 324

Communication, discipline, and labor-management relations. • 14–18, page 326

Section V

Equal employment opportunity in the federal government, page 327

Equal employment opportunity statutory requirements and Army implementation • 14–19, page 327

The discrimination complaint process • 14–20, page 328

Section VI

Senior executive service, page 328

Senior executive service structure and composition • 14–21, page 328

Qualification of SES members • 14–22, page 329

Section VII

Mobilization planning, page 329

Designation of deployable and non-deployable civilian positions • 14–23, page 329

Civilian personnel mobilization planning • 14–24, page 330

Section VIII

Defense civilian intelligence personnel system, page 330

Structure and composition of the defense intelligence personnel system (DCIPS) • 14–25, page 330

Relationship of DCIPS to the Army civilian personnel program • 14–26, page 330

Section IX

Army personnel transformation, page 331

Civilian personnel management XXI • 14–27, page 331

Current CHR administration • 14–28, page 331

Section X

Summary and references, page 331

Summary • 14–29, page 331

References • 14–30, page 332

Chapter 15

Army Training, page 333

Section I

Introduction

, page 333

The training goal • 15–1, page 333

Chapter organization • 15–2, page 333

Section II

Army training overview, page 333

Army training • 15–3, page 333

The three major domains of the Army Training and Leader Development Model • 15–4, page 334

Combined Arms Training strategy (CATS) • 15–5, page 334

Future Army training • 15–6, page 335

Section III

The policy, requirements, and resourcing process, page 335

General • 15–7, page 335

Organization • 15–8, page 336

Requirements and resourcing • 15–9, page 337

Development of the Army individual training requirements • 15–10, page 337

Section IV

Training and doctrine command (TRADOC) organization and training development systems., page 340

Training in institutions-general • 15–11, page 340

The systems approach to training (SAT) • 15–12, page 341

Education and training automation • 15–13, page 342

Section V

The Army School System (TASS), page 342

The objectives of the Army School System (TASS) • 15–14, page 342

The Army Training System (TATS) • 15–15, page 342

Enlisted initial military training (IMT) • 15–16, page 344

Noncommissioned officer training • 15–17, page 345

Non-Commissioned Officer Education System (NCOES) • 15–18, page 345

Warrant officer training • 15–19, page 346

Officer education system (OES) • 15–20, page 347

Civilian education system (CES) • 15–21, page 350

Self-development training • 15–22, page 351

Mobilization training base • 15–23, page 352

Section VI

Training in units, page 353

General • 15–24, page 353

Organization for training in units • 15–25, page 353

Training of soldiers and leaders in units • 15–26, page 353

Soldier training publications (STP) • 15–27, page 354

Collective training • 15–28, page 355

Risk management • 15–29, page 355

Army training and evaluation program (ARTEP) • 15–30, page 355

Mission training plans (MTPs) and drills • 15–31, page 356

Combat training center (CTC) program • 15–32, page 356

Unit training management • 15–33, page 357

Army modernization training (AMT) • 15–34, page 358

The security assistance training program (SATP) • 15–35, page 359

How the Army Runs

Section VII

The training support system, page 360

Training support-general • 15–36, page 360

Organization for training support • 15–37, page 360

New training technologies • 15–38, page 361

Section VIII

Quality Assurance (QA) Program, page 362

Revitalized Quality Assurance (QA) Program • 15–39, page 362

QA Program Organization • 15–40, page 362

QA Program Operation • 15–41, page 364

Section IX

Summary and references, page 365

Summary • 15–42, page 365

References • 15–43, page 365

Training websites with links • 15–44, page 365

Chapter 16

Army Knowledge Management, page 367

Section I

Introduction, page 367

Transformation Strategy • 16–1, page 367

Implementation • 16–2, page 367

Section II

Chief Information Officer (Cio)/G–6 roles and responsibilities, page 368

Clinger-Cohen Act (CCA) • 16–3, page 368

Army Knowledge Management (AKM) • 16–4, page 369

Army CIO Executive Board (CIO EB) • 16–5, page 369

C4/IT Inversement Strategy • 16–6, page 371

Section III

Army Enterprise Management, page 372

Army Enterprise Management • 16–7, page 372

Army Knowledge Online (AKO) • 16–8, page 373

Architecture • 16–9, page 374

Section IV

Other areas, page 375

The Army CIO/G–6 Organization • 16–10, page 375

Resource Integration (RI) • 16–11, page 376

Information Infostructure • 16–12, page 376

C4 Systems, Space, and Networks • 16–13, page 376

Information Assurance (IA) • 16–14, page 377

Biometrics • 16–15, page 377

Human Capital (HC) • 16–16, page 378

Policy and Governance • 16–17, page 378

Strategic Partnering • 16–18, page 378

Section V

Future force, page 379

Transformation changes • 16–19, page 379

Cultural changes • 16–20, page 379

Goal of AKM • 16–21, page 379

Section VI

The Network, page 379

Netcentric Operations and Warfare (NCW) • 16–22, page 379

Global Information Grid (GIG) • 16–23, page 379

The Network • 16–24, page 380

Section VII

Summary and references, page 381

Summary • 16–25, page 381

References • 16–26, page 381

Chapter 17

Installation Command and Management, page 383

Section I

Introduction, page 383

Chapter content • 17–1, page 383

The Army's installation environment • 17–2, page 383

ACSIM mission and functions • 17–3, page 384

Section II

Installation management agency (IMA) organization, page 385

General • 17–4, page 385

Installation management organization • 17–5, page 385

Section III

Key installation management positions, page 385

IMA Garrisons • 17–6, page 385

Area support group (ASG) commander • 17–7, page 386

Base support battalion (BSB) commander • 17–8, page 386

Deputy to the garrison commander • 17–9, page 387

Section IV

Installation management professional development, page 387

Additional skill identifier (ASI) 6Y (Installation Management) • 17–10, page 387

Garrison pre-command course (GPC) • 17–11, page 387

General officer installation commander's course (GOIC) • 17–12, page 387

Garrison sergeant major course (GSGMC) • 17–13, page 387

Section V

Installation staff organization, page 388

Installation special and personal staff • 17–14, page 388

Garrison/area support group/installation support activity • 17–15, page 388

Installation management personnel designations • 17–16, page 388

Section VI

Installation management strategy, page 388

Army Campaign Plan (ACP) – Installations (Line of Operation 15 - LO 15) • 17–17, page 388

Strategy – installations as our flagships • 17–18, page 389

Strategic goals. • 17–19, page 389

Section VII

Major installation management initiatives and programs, page 389

Strategic communications • 17–20, page 389

Doctrine • 17–21, page 389

Privatization and outsourcing • 17–22, page 389

Competitive sourcing • 17–23, page 390

Environmental cleanup strategy • 17–24, page 391

Hazardous substances management system (HSMS) • 17–25, page 391

Toxics management program • 17–26, page 391

Installation pollution prevention (P2) plans • 17–27, page 392

Recycling • 17–28, page 392

Army's energy and water management program • 17–29, page 392

Energy savings performance contracts (ESPC) • 17–30, page 392

Army installation restoration program (IRP) • 17–31, page 393

Army conservation program. • 17–32, page 393

Military construction army (MCA) program • 17–33, page 393

Army facility reduction program • 17–34, page 394

Revitalization • 17–35, page 394

Installation status report (ISR) • 17–36, page 394

How the Army Runs

Base realignment and closure (BRAC) • 17–37, page 395
Managing installations to standards • 17–38, page 395
Improved business practices • 17–39, page 396
Civilian inmate labor programs • 17–40, page 396
Army communities of excellence (ACOE) • 17–41, page 397

Section VIII

Summary and references, page 397

Summary • 17–42, page 397

References • 17–43, page 397

Chapter 18

Intelligence, page 399

Section I

Introduction, page 399

Chapter content • 18–1, page 399

Pending and on-going intelligence-related organizational changes • 18–2, page 399

Intelligence drivers • 18–3, page 400

Intelligence products • 18–4, page 402

Section II

The National Foreign Intelligence System, system management and oversight, and management of collection and production, page 404

U. S. intelligence community goals and organization • 18–5, page 404

Executive and Congressional intelligence resource management • 18–6, page 408

Intelligence process • 18–7, page 409

Section III

Defense and Army Intelligence and uses of intelligence, page 410

Department of Defense (DOD) • 18–8, page 410

Army intelligence system • 18–9, page 412

General uses of intelligence • 18–10, page 414

Section IV

Summary and References, page 415

Summary • 18–11, page 415

References • 18–12, page 416

Chapter 19

The Army Health Service Support System, page 417

Section I

Introduction, page 417

The revolution in military medicine • 19–1, page 417

Scope of the AMEDD • 19–2, page 417

The health service support system and the Army • 19–3, page 417

Medical support to the transforming Army • 19–4, page 417

Section II

AMEDD mission and support to commanders, page 418

Mission of the Army medical department • 19–5, page 418

AMEDD support to commanders • 19–6, page 419

Section III

The Army medical department system, page 419

Key elements • 19–7, page 419

Staff relationships and responsibilities • 19–8, page 420

Section IV

Command and management, page 421

AMEDD reorganization • 19–9, page 421

U.S. Army Medical Command (USAMEDCOM) • 19–10, page 422

U. S. Army Medical Research and Materiel Command (USAMRMC) • 19–11, page 422
 U.S. Army Dental Command • 19–12, page 422
 U.S. Army veterinary service • 19–13, page 422
 U.S. Army Center for Health Promotion and Preventive Medicine (USACHPPM) • 19–14, page 423
 U.S. Army Medical Department Center and School • 19–15, page 423
 USAMEDCOM Acquisition Activity • 19–16, page 423
 Regional Medical Commands (RMCs) • 19–17, page 424
 AMEDD role in combat service support units • 19–18, page 424
 Staff surgeons • 19–19, page 425
 Health service logistics • 19–20, page 425
 Medical Reengineering Initiative (MRI) • 19–21, page 425
 Secretary of the Army's executive agent representative for DoD executive agencies (DoD EA) • 19–22, page 425

Section V

Summary and references, page 426

Summary • 19–23, page 426

References • 19–24, page 426

Chapter 20

Management Of Legal Affairs, page 427

Section I

Introduction, page 427

Law and the commander • 20–1, page 427

Office of the Staff Judge Advocate (OSJA) • 20–2, page 427

Staff Judge Advocate • 20–3, page 427

Section II

Administrative and civil law, page 427

The Army as an administrative agency • 20–4, page 427

Corrective administrative personnel actions • 20–5, page 427

Improper relationships • 20–6, page 428

Standards of conduct • 20–7, page 428

Legal basis of command • 20–8, page 429

Environmental law • 20–9, page 430

Federal labor relations and the role of the labor counselor • 20–10, page 431

Legal assistance • 20–11, page 431

Claims • 20–12, page 432

Command authority and judicial review of military activities • 20–13, page 432

Section III

Military Justice, page 433

Background • 20–14, page 433

Providing military justice legal services • 20–15, page 433

Active Army jurisdiction • 20–16, page 434

Jurisdiction over reservists • 20–17, page 434

The commander's role • 20–18, page 434

Options available to the commander • 20–19, page 435

Unlawful command influence • 20–20, page 436

Section IV

International/Operational Law, page 437

International law • 20–21, page 437

Operational law (OPLAW) • 20–22, page 437

U.S. Forces stationed overseas under a Status of Forces Agreement (SOFA) • 20–23, page 438

Deployment for conventional combat missions • 20–24, page 438

Security assistance missions • 20–25, page 440

Deployment for overseas exercises • 20–26, page 441

Smaller-scale contingencies (SSC) • 20–27, page 442

Section V

Contract/Fiscal Law, page 443

Overview • 20–28, page 443

Contract legal review • 20–29, page 443

How the Army Runs

Fiscal law • 20–30, page 444

Section VI

Summary and references, page 445

Summary • 20–31, page 445

References • 20–32, page 445

Chapter 21

Civil Functions of The Department of The Army, page 447

Section I

Introduction, page 447

Civil functions defined • 21–1, page 447

Funding sources for civil functions • 21–2, page 447

Relationship to warfighting competencies • 21–3, page 447

Leadership and organization • 21–4, page 447

Section II

Civil works program, page 448

Civil works program activities • 21–5, page 448

Research and development (R&D) • 21–6, page 451

Section III

Support to other government agencies, page 452

Overview of support to other government agencies • 21–7, page 452

Value of support activities • 21–8, page 452

Section IV

National Cemeteries, page 453

Overview of national cemeteries • 21–9, page 453

Funding • 21–10, page 453

Long-term capital planning for Arlington National Cemetery • 21–11, page 453

Section V

Engineer Overseas Activities, page 453

Overview of engineer overseas activities • 21–12, page 453

Foreign military sales (FMS) • 21–13, page 453

Cooperative threat reduction • 21–14, page 454

Partnership for peace • 21–15, page 454

Support for U.S. agencies • 21–16, page 454

Section VI

Support To Unified Combatant Commanders, page 454

Benefits to warfighting capabilities • 21–17, page 454

Overview of support to unified combatant commanders • 21–18, page 454

Examples of support to unified combatant commanders • 21–19, page 454

Section VII

Summary and References, page 455

Summary • 21–20, page 455

References • 21–21, page 455

Chapter 22

Public Affairs, page 457

Section I

Introduction, page 457

Chapter content • 22–1, page 457

Specialized and specific terms used in public affairs • 22–2, page 457

Section II

Public affairs principles, page 458

Public affairs strategic goals • 22–3, page 458

Public affairs vision • 22–4, page 458

Section III

Public affairs doctrine and processes, page 458

The Constitution and First Amendment • 22–5, page 458

Freedom of Information Act • 22–6, page 458

Privacy Act • 22–7, page 459

DoD principles of information • 22–8, page 459

Guidelines for coverage of DoD combat operations • 22–9, page 459

Operational security • 22–10, page 460

Core processes • 22–11, page 460

Section IV

Army public affairs organizations, page 461

The Office of the Chief of Public Affairs (OCPA), Department of the Army • 22–12, page 461

MACOM-level and installation public affairs • 22–13, page 461

Organic public affairs sections • 22–14, page 462

Theater Army Public Affairs Section • 22–15, page 462

Corps and Theater Army Area Command (TAACOM) PA Sections • 22–16, page 462

Division and Corps Support Command (COSCOM) Public Affairs Sections • 22–17, page 462

Reserve and National Guard component public affairs • 22–18, page 462

Public Affairs Operations Center (PAOC) • 22–19, page 462

Mobile Public Affairs Detachment (MPAD) • 22–20, page 462

Broadcast Operations Detachment (BOD) • 22–21, page 462

Public Affairs Detachment (PAD) • 22–22, page 463

Section V

Joint and combined public affairs organizations, page 463

Office of the Assistant Secretary of Defense (Public Affairs) (OASD(PA)) • 22–23, page 463

Joint Information Bureau (JIB) • 22–24, page 463

Combined Information Bureau (CIB) • 22–25, page 463

Pentagon correspondents • 22–26, page 463

DoD National Media Pool • 22–27, page 463

Joint combat camera • 22–28, page 464

Section VI

Information mediums, page 464

News media • 22–29, page 464

Television • 22–30, page 464

Television “news magazines” • 22–31, page 464

Radio • 22–32, page 464

Print • 22–33, page 464

Motion picture industry support • 22–34, page 464

Internet • 22–35, page 465

Section VII

Summary and references, page 465

Summary • 22–36, page 465

References • 22–37, page 465

Chapter 23

Defense Support of Civil Authorities, page 467

Section I

Introduction, page 467

Constitutional and policy basis for defense support of civil authorities (DSCA) • 23–1, page 467

Overview • 23–2, page 467

Historic role of domestic military support • 23–3, page 467

DoD Role in Homeland Security (HLS) Today • 23–4, page 468

Military assistance definitions • 23–5, page 469

Section II

Domestic emergencies and response, page 469

Categories of Domestic Support • 23–6, page 469

How the Army Runs

Federal law enforcement response • 23–7, page 470
Response management • 23–8, page 470

Section III

National Response Process, page 473

National Response Plan • 23–9, page 473

Emergency support function #3 (public works and engineering) • 23–10, page 477

Section IV

Department of Defense DSCA structure, page 478

Changes in DOD structure • 23–11, page 478

DOD Offices: • 23–12, page 478

Unified Combatant Commands • 23–13, page 478

Policy principles • 23–14, page 479

Executive agent missions • 23–15, page 479

Section V

Military support process, page 480

Principles of DSCA • 23–16, page 480

Leadership reviews • 23–17, page 480

Planning parameters • 23–18, page 480

DSCA request and response process • 23–19, page 480

Immediate response • 23–20, page 482

National special security event (NSSE) • 23–21, page 482

Section VI

Special DSCA situations, page 483

Consequence management for chemical-biological-radiological-nuclear and high yield explosives • 23–22, page 483

Special event sporting competitions • 23–23, page 483

Section VII

Military assistance for civil disturbances (MACDIS), page 484

MACDIS • 23–24, page 484

Civil disturbance conditions (CIDCON) • 23–25, page 485

Section VIII

DSCA considerations, page 485

Drug interdiction and counter drug activities • 23–26, page 485

Reserve component considerations • 23–27, page 486

Media relations • 23–28, page 486

Section IX

Summary and references, page 487

Summary • 23–29, page 487

References • 23–30, page 487

Appendix A. References, page A–1

Table List

Table 8–1: JQRR Functional Areas, page 120

Table 8–2: RA levels Definitions, page 122

Table 9–1: Program Evaluation Groups, page 133

Table 9–2: Managers for manpower and force structure issues, page 134

Table 9–3: Budget activity management structure for operation and maintenance appropriations, page 134

Table 9–4: Budget activity management structure for operation and maintenance appropriations—Army manpower only activity structure, page 136

Table 9–5: Budget activity management structure for operation and maintenance appropriation—Base operations support (BOS), page 136

Table 9–6: Budget activity management structure for operation and maintenance appropriations—Sustainment, Restoration, and Modernization (SRM), page 137

Table 9–7: Budget activity management structure for operation and maintenance appropriations—Army National Guard, page 138

Table 9-8: Budget activity management structure for operations and maintenance appropriations—U.S. Army Reserve,	page 139
Table 9-9: Army appropriations—managers for functional requirements and program and performance,	page 139
Table 9-11: FYDP Programs and Subprograms with Army Proponents,	page 147
Table 9-12: Composition of Army PPBE deliberative forums,	page 155
Table 9-13: Topics covered in POM/BES 04-09,	page 170
Table 10-1: Translating an accounting code,	page 189
Table 11-1: Systems Acquisition Management Individual Element,	page 199
Table 11-2: Below Threshold Reprogramming Levels,	page 249
Table 12-1: Foci of national and theater logistics,	page 256
Table 12-2: UMMIPS Time Standards,	page 279
Table 13-1: TWOS promotion goals,	page 305
Table 13-2: Career progression pattern,	page 311
Table 15-1: SAT Phase Functions Requirements,	page 343
Table 15-2: Enlisted Training Program,	page 345
Table 20-1: Court Martial maximum punishments,	page 436
Table 21-1: Construction support for non-DoD Agencies,	page 452
Table 23-1.: Federal Response Plan Emergency Support Functions,	page 477

Figure List

Figure 1-1: The Army Transformation,	page 4
Figure 2-1: The Army Organization Life Cycle Model,	page 8
Figure 3-1: HQDA Reorganization Structure,	page 22
Figure 4-1: JSPS Documents,	page 25
Figure 4-2: JROC functional area,	page 30
Figure 4-3: Functional Capabilities Board,	page 31
Figure 4-4: Army force requirements,	page 32
Figure 4-5: Army force providers,	page 33
Figure 4-6: Command and communication,	page 34
Figure 5-1: Force development process,	page 38
Figure 5-2: Army concepts,	page 40
Figure 5-3: Concepts based capability development,	page 42
Figure 5-4: Solutions documents,	page 43
Figure 5-5: Force design update (FDU),	page 44
Figure 5-6: Modernization over time (Resource Driven),	page 46
Figure 5-7: Total army analysis process,	page 49
Figure 5-8: Total army analysis 2008-2013,	page 49
Figure 5-9: Force sizing construct,	page 52
Figure 5-10: Force structure components (COMPO),	page 54
Figure 5-11: SACS/Force builders process,	page 58
Figure 6-1: Joint strategic planning system,	page 62
Figure 6-2: Joint operation planning and execution system (JOPES),	page 63
Figure 6-3: Functional process major inputs and output,	page 66
Figure 6-4: JOPES relational functions,	page 66
Figure 6-5: JOPES deliberate planning,	page 69
Figure 6-6: Deliberate planning process,	page 70
Figure 6-7: JOPES crisis action planning,	page 71
Figure 6-8: Crisis action planning process,	page 74
Figure 6-9: Army mobilization planning,	page 79
Figure 6-10: AMOPES Subsystems,	page 81
Figure 6-11: Reserve categories and mobilization,	page 84
Figure 6-12: Stages of mobilization,	page 87
Figure 6-13: Operational and mobilization continuum,	page 87
Figure 6-14: Mobilization and Execution Process,	page 88
Figure 7-1: FY 04 Total Army composition,	page 95
Figure 7-2: Reserve service categories,	page 97
Figure 7-3: Army Reserve Command relationships,	page 101
Figure 7-4: ARNG management structure,	page 102
Figure 7-5: Army Directorate, NGB,	page 103
Figure 7-6: Office of the Chief, Army Reserve,	page 104
Figure 7-7: Joint Reserve Unit and AREs,	page 110
Figure 8-1: Balancing the Imperatives,	page 115
Figure 8-2: The Cost of Force Readiness,	page 117
Figure 8-3: Chairman's Readiness System,	page 118
Figure 8-4: The JQRR Process,	page 119

- Figure 8-5: JQRR M-level Criteria, page 120
Figure 8-6: JQRR Deficiency Acceptance Flow Chart, page 121
Figure 8-7: RA-Level Impact Considerations, page 122
Figure 8-8: Active Army and Army Reserve Unit Status Reporting Channels, page 124
Figure 8-9: Army National Guard Unit Status Reporting Channels, page 125
Figure 8-10: SRS Architecture, page 127
Figure 8-11: Army Strategy Map, page 128
Figure 9-1: Program Integrators, page 145
Figure 9-2: Resources in the FYDP reflecting the FY06-07 budget, page 148
Figure 9-3: Fiscal year structure of resources in an MDEP reflecting the FY, page 152
Figure 9-4: Fiscal year structure of resources in an MDEP reflecting the FY, page 153
Figure 9-5: Fiscal year structure of resources in an MDEP reflecting in the FY, page 153
Figure 9-6: Program Evaluation Groups, page 157
Figure 9-8: PPBE framework and acronyms, page 159
Figure 9-8: PPBE framework acronyms — continued, page 160
Figure 9-9: Army Resource Framework, page 166
Figure 9-10: Representative Timeline for POM/BES build, page 168
Figure 9-11: Program versus budget perspective, page 170
Figure 9-12: Representative timeline for program and budget review, page 172
Figure 10-1: Office of the Assistant Secretary of the Army (Financial), page 182
Figure 10-2: Resource Management's "4-A's", page 183
Figure 10-3: Fund Distribution Process, page 184
Figure 10-4: Cycle of Commitment and Review, page 196
Figure 11-1: Organizational linkage for Army materiel acquisition, page 201
Figure 11-2: Army acquisition executive (AAE), page 204
Figure 11-3: Acquisition categories (ACATS), page 205
Figure 11-3: Acquisition categories (ACATS)-continued, page 205
Figure 11-4: DoD Acquisition authority chart, page 207
Figure 11-5: Army S&T Oversight, page 219
Figure 11-6: Technology Readiness Levels (TRLs), page 221
Figure 11-7: Materiel requirements approval/Program initiation proces, page 226
Figure 11-8: System acquisition management process, page 228
Figure 11-9: Total package fielding concept, page 235
Figure 11-10: Acquisition strategy, page 241
Figure 12-1: Strategic lines of operation and communication, page 256
Figure 12-2: Army G-4 organization, page 258
Figure 12-3: Major elements of AMC, page 268
Figure 12-4: Merging of inputs to create projected distribution, page 270
Figure 12-5: Executing distribution requisition validations (REQVAL), page 274
Figure 12-6: Equipment release priority system, page 275
Figure 12-7: Supply, personnel, maintenance, acquisition, transportation,, page 275
Figure 13-1: Strength relationships, page 292
Figure 13-2: Enlisted procurement, page 293
Figure 13-3: Manning programs, page 296
Figure 13-4: Enlisted automation management system, page 298
Figure 13-5: Officer distribution, page 301
Figure 13-6: OPMS III-four career fields, page 307
Figure 13-7: Human resource management senior leadership, page 309
Figure 14-1: U.S. Army assigned strength as of 30 September 2004, page 317
Figure 14-2: Differences between the military and civilian systems, page 319
Figure 14-3: Department of the Army civilian career program strength as of, page 326
Figure 14-4: Senior executive service assigned strength as of 01 January, page 329
Figure 15-1: Army Training and Leader Development Model, page 334
Figure 15-2: The policy, requirements, and resource process, page 336
Figure 15-3: Developing training requirements and resourcing the training, page 339
Figure 15-4: Structure Manning Decision Review (SMDR), page 340
Figure 15-5: Systems Approach to Training (SAT) model, page 341
Figure 15-6: The Army Training System, page 344
Figure 15-7: Warrant officer education system, page 347
Figure 15-8: Officer education system, page 349
Figure 15-9: Current civilian education system (CES), page 350
Figure 15-10: Proposed CES Leader Development Core Courses, page 351
Figure 15-11: The forces training system, page 352
Figure 15-12: System for individual training in units, page 355
Figure 15-13: New equipment training: planning process, page 359
Figure 15-14: The training support system, page 360

Figure 15-15: Program organization structure, page 363
Figure 15-16: Accreditation bars of excellence, page 364
Figure 16-1: Investment Strategy Working Group Process, page 370
Figure 16-2: Operational relationships, page 372
Figure 16-3: AKEA roles and responsibilities, page 375
Figure 16-4: CIO/G-6 Organization, page 376
Figure 18-1: Army Intelligence—Changing Methods and Balance, page 402
Figure 18-2: Organization of the National Intelligence System, page 407
Figure 18-3: Army Intelligence Organization, page 413
Figure 19-1: The Army medical department, page 421
Figure 19-2: Regional boundaries for medical and dental commanders, page 424
Figure 21-1: Civil works division and districts, page 452
Figure 23-1: Tiered disaster/emergency response, page 471
Figure 23-2: EMAC participants, page 473
Figure 23-3: The National Response Plan (Under the Stafford Act), page 474
Figure 23-4: The National Response Plan (Non-Stafford Act Situations), page 475
Figure 23-5: Initial Request for DOD Assistance, page 482
Figure 23-6: Civil disturbance support command and control, page 485

Glossary